

January Economy Sale

SATURDAY IS THE LAST DAY

We wish that there was some way to express in words just what this Sale could mean to you. It is a clearance of Winter stocks, but it is much more than that. It is a co-operative effort, with manufacturers, jobbers and ourselves working together to reduce the high cost of living. The general tendency of prices is still upward—buy, then, where and when the prices are really lower.

BUY NOW...AT THESE LOW PRICES

THESE LAST MINUTE BARGAINS ARE THE BIGGEST YET.

Last Day Bargains From the Wash Goods Department

GENUINE RIPPLETTE which is worth at the present market price 48c a yard. Offered in staple pink, blue and gray, seersucker stripes. ECONOMY PRICE 35c

PASTORAL SUITING is an all-cotton suiting in woolen effects. It is attractive in every way and worth 58c a yard. ECONOMY PRICE 39c

35c OUTING FLANNELS of very good weight and in excellent colors and patterns. Width 27 inches. ECONOMY PRICE 27c

STATE GUARD COMPANIES

TO TEST RIFLE SKILL

Col. E. T. Kirkland, commanding the Third Infantry, Connecticut State Guard, has issued orders for the district and state indoor rifle matches to be held in accordance with general Order No. 11 issued by the military emergency board on Dec. 22. The first match begins on Jan. 25 and will end March 13, each company in the regiment shooting against every other company. The winning team to represent the regiment in the state match. The order giving the rules and conditions follow:

Each company in the regiment will shoot against every other company and the team making the highest aggregate score will be declared the winner, and represent the regiment in the state match.

The conditions are as follows:

Range—200 yds. as issued by state.

Distance—40 feet.

Target—As furnished by state.

Number of shots—20 (10 prone, five kneeling and five sitting). No sighting or artificial rests will be permitted. Each competitor will use four targets (five shots on each). Number of men on team—10.

The six highest scores to count. The two lowest men will be dropped each week and be substituted by two new men. Men so dropped may be used later if desired.

Prize—To the team making the highest aggregate score will be awarded the Col. Kirkland Cup, to be held for one year.

Company commanders will supervise the shooting and see that the conditions are fully complied with and that the rank, full name and position of each competitor is plainly written on each score card.

Matches will be shot on regular drill nights and score cards mailed to Capt. A. P. Woodward, A. I. S. A. F., Danvers, Conn., on the day following the match.

Matches will be shot as follows: Week of Jan. 25th to 31st—Co. A and B—Co. I and H—Co. C and D.

Week of Feb. 1st to 7th—Co. A and C—Co. G and I—Co. B and D.

Week of Feb. 8th to 14th—Co. A and D—Co. B and C—Co. H and G.

Week of Feb. 15th to 21st—Co. C and H—Co. E and J—Co. D and L.

Week of Feb. 22nd to 28th—Co. A and G—Co. GB and H—Co. C and I.

Week of Feb. 29th to March 6th—Co. A and H—Co. D and G—Co. E and L.

Week of March 7th to 13th—Co. A and I—Co. C and G—Co. D and H.

A writer says that sleep is conducive to beauty. Perhaps it is, but we have seen some rather homely policemen.

PUTNAM

ship of the Quinebaug Valley Basketball League, which is made up of a number of high school teams in this part of the state, including Putnam.

Nathan Chase, 68, for nearly sixty years a resident of the town of Thompson, is dead at his home there. Mr. Chase was native of Northbridge, Mass. He served in the Civil war as a member of a Connecticut regiment of volunteers. Until a week ago Mr. Chase was in the best of health, but a sudden and severe attack of pneumonia could not be withstood by a man of his advanced years.

From West Woodstock comes a word that poultry buyers have been cheating farmers and farmers' wives in that section—giving short weight reports on poultry they bought and taking more fowl than they agreed to when permitted to select from the coops. One woman had more than $20 worth of laying hens and pullets stolen almost before her eyes.

Rev. W. H. Bath, of Norwich, district superintendent, will be at the Methodist church in West Woodstock this (Saturday) afternoon to hold the fourth quarterly conference.

At an informal gathering held by the Women's Missionary society of the Congregational church at the home of Mrs. E. C. Morse ten sent direct from China was served to the sixty in attendance.
